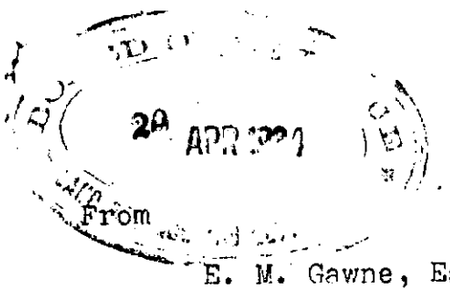
R. O. C. 1776-34-B--1.



South Kanara Collector's Office,

Mangalore, dated 17th April 1934.

From

E. M. Gawne, Esq, I.C.S.,

Collector of South Kanara.

To

The Secretary to the Board,

Land Revenue & Settlement,

Madras.

Sir,

Allowances- Tasdik--(South Kanara)--Coondapur Taluk--Kerodi village--Institution No. 60 Durga Devi and No. 61 Chittari--Payment of arrears.

Institutions Nos. 60 and 61, Durga Devi and Chittari of Kerodi village, have an annual tasdik of Rs.17-6-5 and Rs.4 respectively. The Tasdik relating to these has gone into deposit from fasli 1335 as the trustee died in 1926 and no new trustee was appointed in his place.

One Nagappayya Bhatta, a brother of the deceased trustee has been appointed trustee by the Hindu Religious Endowments Board in August 1933. He applied to the Tahsildar in September 1933 for the payment of the arrears of tasdik. Although Nagappaya Bhatta was not able to provide himself with a sanad earlier, I find that the institutions were maintained satisfactorily and I recommend that he may be given tasdik with effect from fasli 1338.

The institutions are reported to be in order and services are conducted regularly.

Your obedient servant,

Gawne

Collector.

Sir,

Allowances--Tasdik--(South Kanara)--Coondapur Taluk--Keradi village--Religious Institutions--Durga Devi and Chittari--Payment of arrears.

Ref:- Board's reference A. 1598/34-1 dated 24th April 1934.

Nagapayya Bhatta deposes that he could not get a sanad from the Havik Committee to which the institution belonged, as soon as the last Trustee died, as the Committee was then incomplete. It appears that he did not know for some time, after that, to whom he should apply; but that later after one or two unsuccessful attempts, he obtained a sanad from the Hindu Religious Endowments Board. This need not be construed as neglect on the part of the present trustee, especially as the services have all along been performed ever since the Tasdik went to deposit.
